ARIAN DEFEATS ED AUSTIN.

The second week of Hawthorne's summer meeting started out auspiciously, there being a splendid Monday crowd present. The track was heavy and holding and mudlarks had the call in each race. The Hawthorne Stakes, the feature event of the day furnished a big surprise, the winner turning up in a rank outsider Arian which was beaten off in the same kind of going in the Competition Stakes last week. It was a peculiarly run race, the winner lying back of his field until the final quarter where he moved up and got to the leader opposite the paddock gate. Along in here the six were bunched and all tiring badly. Arian finally got his neck in front and held it there to the end. Ed Austin was second a head in front of Janbert which was a length in the lead of Doreen. The last three were ready to drop from exhaustion by the time the line had been reached and were hardly moving better than a canter in the closing strides. Jack Battlin showed a great turn of early speed, but tired and quit badly when the pinch came. Rosewar also dropped all interest in the contest when the crucial test came.

Pat Dunne double shot the game when Bonnie Lissak won the last race. The filly had on her running clothes and never left her many supporters in doubt as to the result. Sister Memie led on sufferance at the first quarter by a length, but while going down the backstretch Ranch gave the Dunne filly her head and she moved easily into the lead. Just before turning for home Henry of Trastamare moved up to her saddle girths, but once straightened away in the stretch she shook him off quickly and coming on strongly, won by a length with Henry of Trastamare two and a half in front of Chorus Boy. There was a generous backing of the latter, but he failed to run up to expectations. He ran about an even clip throughout. The others never had a chance.

The sprint race was taken by that good Sir Dixon horse, George Arnold, which hooked up with Maggie Davis at the last eighth post, and after a merry tilt beat her to the line by a neck. Maggie Davis showed the most early speed, but was tiring in the last sixteenth. Andrisa was third, eight lengths away, and put up a poor performance. The other two could not extend themselves in the going.

The opening race of the day went to Commissioner Forster, which has shown some good races hereabouts recently. He had to be pounds the best to win, as he was fully ten lengths back of Emathion as the latter turned into the stretch in the lead. Down the run-in Woods began to ride him with strength and the colt simply consumed space, picking up those in front with ease and winning, going away by two lengths from April, which beat Miracle II, a half length for second place. The latter made up much ground in the last quarter, but was well spent at the end and was beginning to swerve. Emathion showed plenty of early speed, but was tiring fast in the last sixteenth.

Frangible had simply a cakewalk of it in the long distance race, assuming the lead at flagpole and easily remaining in front all the way. He won pulled up almost to a walk by two and a half lengths from Alaska, which was five in front of G. W. W. The latter was backed for a good thing, but failed to make good. He ran well for seven furlongs and then died away. The others were never contenders. Alaska ran a good race considering the weights, and while he had no chance to beat the winner, was easily the best of the others.

The finish in the third race was a peculiar one and smacked somewhat of comedy. It appeared all over as if Seguranca would win easily in the last eighth, but suddenly she was seen to sprawl and flounder and show signs of distress. Brownie Anderson was about four lengths back of the Bennett filly along in here, but when Gormley called on her she too began to sprawl, and to make matters worse he lost control of her and apparently gave up persevering with her. As luck would have it he got her together again and, seeing Seguranca falter, rallied her. She responded well, and coming on caught and passed Seguranca in the closing strides, winning by a length and a half. Dalkeith, which finished well, was third, five lengths back of Seguranca. St. Bluff showed speed for a short six furlongs and will do to watch. Slipper, after being well up to the head of the stretch, quit badly, finishing absolutely last.

Time, 3:19.

Winner—B. g. by Charaxus—Young Grace. Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Charaxus's prohibitive price was hardly warranted by his running and his jockey put up a very listless effort. Hopeful showed good speed and hung on surprisingly well at the end. Salesman finished well. Kufa is evidently very ordinary.

Scratched—28896 Musician, 153; (24192) Gould, 153; 26955 Ceph algalgia, 134.

Corrected weights—Heroics, 149.

Winner—B. g. by Candlamas—Bibelot. Went to post at 3:05. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Enright easily outclassed the field and ran under a pull throughout. Musidora ran her usual speedy and game race and was lucky. G. Whittier showed improved form and finished strongly. Clipper and was given a very bad ride.

Winner—Ch. g. by Tammany—Ayrshire Rose. Went to post at 3:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. St. Finnan was very good and lucky and perfectly ridden. He was greatly favored by his light weight, waited on McGrathiana Prince to the far turn and beat him through the stretch and in game fashion stalled off Wax Taper's rush at the end. The latter hung in the final strides. McGrathiana Prince was particularly suited by the going, which was damp and soft. Latson appeared a contender on the stretch turn, but failed to show his usual good stretch run. Mortallo was probably handicapped by the slightly wet going, as he commenced to drop out of the race after six furlongs had been traversed.

Scratched—26847 The Amazon, 102.

Overweights—Latson, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Exile—Meddle. Went to post at 4:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Disturber galloped well in hand throughout, was never extended and was far the best. Elsie Skip showed a liking for the going which by this time was sloppy, closing very strongly at the end. Oread was under a drive early and her race was unexplainably bad as she has hitherto shown almost stake form in mud.

BROOKLYN JOCKEY CLUB STAKES.

In the advertising department of this issue
Secretary Hugh D. McIntyre of the Brooklyn Jockey Club presents the conditions of a number of rich stakes to close August 15. They are the most important events offered annually by the Brooklyn Jockey Club, and are to be run in 1902 and 1903 by horses that are now yearlings.
Owners in the west should not be niggardly in patronizing these very valuable stakes, for the mere fact that a youngster is well engaged in the leading races of any year adds immensely to his value before he has ever been tried out, and in the event of his proving to be a good one makes him worth a fortune in these days of high prices for winning performers of high promise. Consideration of their varying conditions is earnestly commended to all owners.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Pat Dunne sold Admonition to M. H. Tichenor yesterday for the reported price of $3,000 and Mr. Tichenor has departed for a campaign at Saratoga, taking along Cambrian, Caviar, Admonition and Elsie L., a string that should earn its share of money at the Spa.

Tea Tray, ch. h. foaled 1885 by Rayon d'Or—Ella T., by War Dance, out of Bonnie Kate, by Knight of St. George, has been sent to Cuba for breeding purposes.

Fred Taral, in a recent letter to a friend in this country, wrote that out of 140 mounts in Austria he had won 68.

Went to post at 4:35. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Himself was so far the best in the going, that he carried his bad jockey to victory, running straight and true and easily drawing away in the last sixteenth from the badly beaten Malden, running on the inside, which O'Connor jerked up suddenly, successfully getting away with a fake effort at being fouled by the winner. Malden showed the most early speed and was second best. James J. Corbett showed speed and finished well and should be heard from among the lowest class.
Guileless, supposed to be another good one from Madden's stable, ran only a fair race.
Scratched—(26423) Sweet Tooth, 113; (27016) Bedeck, 110; (25799) Waterton, 103; 22484 School-

Time, 11½, 23½, 35½, 47½, 1:01½, 1:07½.
Winner—B. c. by Foul Shot or Sain—Laura Agnes.
Went to post at 5:00. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second easily. Otis showed phenomenal form today and is evidently a wonder on a sloppy track. Cameron, evidently handicapped by the going, broke slowly and appeared to dwell in the first furlong and was unable to get into his stride. He ran a fine race at that. The Rival broke running but was easily passed by the first two, still showed very good speed and was by far the best of the others.
The race was a procession throughout. Carmaid and Avis went well in the race and City Bank and Byrne of Roserea the reverse.
Scratched—27042 Oclawaha, 99.
Corrected weights—City Bank, 107.
Otis, show, 1 to 3. Cameron, show, out. The Rival, show, 7 to 5.

MONTANA RACING.

There has been much said and written of the Montana Jockey Club and the race meet being conducted by it. Some of the comment has been favorable and more of it adverse and it is not amiss to say a little more and give credit where credit is due. The officials of the club have labored hard and assiduously and they have worked under many disadvantages, but notwithstanding it all, it can be said that the meet is a success, everything considered.

There was considerable dissatisfaction expressed by horse owners at the shavng of purses, and there was more dissatisfaction among the talent at the slimmness of the odds offered by the books. Then, too, there were frequent kicks and grumbings, about alleged questionable riding and form reversals, that look palpable enough to have been brought about for an individual advantage. That is all a thing of the past now, and the jockey club today enters on the third week of its meet, with the knowledge that it has done its best to make sport good, has accomplished it and above all has satisfied its patrons that everything will be on the level and first-class, if it is possible to make it so.

The horse owners are no longer dissatisfied and the talent feels that it is getting a run for the money invested. The bookmakers have loosened up and no one can, with reason, kick against the odds offered. The attention of the Jockey Club officials was called to the evident penurioness of the books and the result is that the odds are now as liberal as could be wished for.

As far as in and out running is concerned, there is little to say, except that the judges have shown that they will not tolerate it. On more than one occasion jockeys have been called into the stand and warned, and the result is that no jockey has repeated the offense against which he was admonished. All that is necessary is for the judges to make it plain that nonsense will not be tolerated and that crooked work will result in summary handling of the offenders and all will be well. The judges have made it plain that they will stand for no funny business, and the result is that clean sport will be the order of the day.—Butte Inter-Mountain.

Brownie Anderson faltered at the last eighth post under a weak ride, but Gormley pulled her together again and she came on on her own courage, catching the tiring Segurance a few strides from the line. The latter showed all her recent speed, but was out to the last ounce when a sixteenth out. Dominick tried to hold her together in the closing strides, but she sprawled badly. Dalkeith finished strongly and ran probably the best race of his career and showed a liking for the going. St. Bluff ran well for six furlongs and will bear watching.

Arian moved up fast when coming down the stretch and catching his field in the last sixteenth outgamed Ed Austin and Jaubert at the end. Went to post at 3:32. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Senator Beveridge was beaten for speed after going three-eighths, but under Rutter's energetic riding he gradually closed on Caller and, catching the latter in the last furlong, beat him going away at the end. Caller seemed all over a winner three-eighths from home, but tired badly in the last eighth. At that his race was an improvement over his last previous effort. Longflo, in the going, was easily the best of the others. John McElroy is best on dry going and requires strong handling to make him run at his best. San Andres probably disliked the going and lost ground on the first turn.
Overweights—Caller, 41 pounds.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Erne was at home in the going and stood a long drive well. He was drawing away at the finish. Ben Milam showed the most early speed, but tired in the last seventy yards when the severe test came and could not concede the weights. Louis Wagner had to do his best to save third place from Jennie Day. The latter was coming strongly and would have secured it in another stride. Faleta showed a burst of speed, but retired early. She does not like heavy going and will perform better on a fast track.
Overweights—Ben Milam, 5 pounds; Idogo, 3.

Went to post at 4:31. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Rush Fields seemed to be in a soft spot but had to do his best in the last sixteenth to stall off Hinsdale. The latter ran a good race considering the bad handling and numerous obstacles he had to overcome. He was interfered with repeatedly on the backstretch and again on the turn when he was making his run and finished next to the inner rail where the going was deepest. Baffled had no mishaps. Bean finished strongly and will bear watching. Louisville Belle ran well for three-quarters then quit. Rotterdam showed early speed but tired. The winner was run up $405 over his entered price of $300 and bid in.

Cormorant went to the front when called on but McCann had to ride hard in the last sixteenth as the horse was tiring. Lady Curzon should have won but Howell used bad judgment in not making his run sooner. Ben O'Fallon had no mishaps. Irish Jewel ceased to be a contender as soon as the stretch turn was reached.
